

HIV Clinical Leadership Program

MAKE A Difference

- Unique HIV fellowship in Los Angeles that provides physicians with the knowledge and skills necessary to be:
 - Experts in medical management of HIV and AIDS
 - Health systems leaders
 - Partners in patient-centered and community-specific interventions
- Bringing together the strengths of:
 - Los Angeles County Department of Health Services
 - AIDS Education and Training Center
 - Keck School of Medicine of USC
 - UCLA National Clinician Scholars Program
- HIV Certification
- Up to $150,000 in student loan repayment

FIND OUT MORE AND APPLY TODAY

www.hivmedfellowship.com

Application and Selection Process

Applications are available online at www.hivmedfellowship.com and are accepted from August 1 through October 15 of each application year. The second round of the application process involves Zoom interviews between October 15 and November 15. Final cohort selection is completed by November 30. The fellowship program may accept up to four qualified candidates per year and begins on July 1 each year.

Ideal candidates are board-eligible graduates of a residency program in Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, or Medicine-Pediatrics with a strong interest in HIV medicine or an interest in building community programs to improve access to quality HIV care.

More questions? Visit our program website or contact:

Gina Rossetti, M.D.

Director, HIV Clinical Leadership Program
grossetti@dhs.lacounty.gov

Jerry D. Gates, Ph.D.

PI and Director, AIDS Education and Training Center
at the Keck School of Medicine of USC
jdgates@usc.edu

Program Partners:

Health Services
LOS ANGELES COUNTY

