

HIV Clinical Leadership Program

MAKE A Difference

- Unique HIV fellowship in Los Angeles that provides physicians with the knowledge and skills necessary to be:
 - Experts in medical management of HIV and AIDS
 - Health systems leaders
 - Partners in patient-centered and community-specific interventions
- Bringing together the strengths of:
 - Los Angeles County Department of Health Services
 - Family Medicine Department, Keck School of Medicine of USC
 - UCLA National Clinician Scholars Program
- HIV Certification
- Up to $150,000 in student loan repayment

FIND OUT MORE AND APPLY TODAY
www.hivmedfellowship.com

2020 Application Process has been extended due to COVID-19.

Applications are available online at www.hivmedfellowship.com and are accepted from August 1 through November 30 during this application year. The second round of the application process involves Zoom interviews between December 1 and December 15. Final cohort selection will be completed by December 15. The fellowship program may accept up to four qualified candidates per year and begins on July 1 each year.

Ideal candidates are board-eligible graduates of a residency program in Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, or Medicine-Pediatrics with a strong interest in HIV medicine or an interest in building community programs to improve access to quality HIV care.

More questions? Visit our program website or contact:

Gina Rossetti, M.D.

Director, HIV Clinical Leadership Program

grossetti@dhs.lacounty.gov

Jerry D. Gates, Ph.D.

Director, AIDS Education at the Keck School of Medicine of USC

jdgates@usc.edu

Program Partners:

Keck School of Medicine of USC

